Appeal against your Home Office [Asylum/Immigration] Decision – Paying your appeal fee

Unless your appeal is of a type exempt from payment, you are in receipt of Legal Aid or Asylum Support or support under Section 17 of the Children's Act 1989, or you have applied for and received a fee remission under the Lord Chancellor's exceptional power you will need to pay a fee. If you do not do so, your appeal will either be rejected or struck-out without a decision being made on it.

More information about the circumstances where you do not have to pay a fee can be found in our fees guidance leaflet T495 available from <http://hmctsformfinder.justice.gov.uk>

To pay your fee using a payment card, please provide the details below. You should ensure that the payment card you provide has sufficient credit to cover the fee, which will be taken in Pounds Sterling. If your card is declined then your appeal will be delayed whilst we contact you for an alternative payment.

Please note that as an alternative to sending this form to the Tribunal, you can lodge and pay your appeal online at <https://immigrationappealonline.justice.gov.uk/IACFees>

If you are unable to pay now using a payment card, you should send your appeal ensuring that you sign the declaration on page 11 to indicate that you understand that a fee is payable, and will pay the fee when given instructions to pay by alternative methods.

Tribunal staff, on behalf of the Lord Chancellor, will write to you once your appeal is received, providing you with details of the methods available for you to pay your fee.

Please note, we are unable to accept cash, cheques or American Express.

Payment card details

If you are paying your fee by payment card, please enter the details below. You should ensure that you enter them carefully since if the Tribunal is unable to process these details it could delay your appeal. Do not send in your credit card details to us more than once unless we write to you asking that you submit further card details to us.

Once your payment has been processed, the Tribunal will destroy your card details.

By completing the details below, you authorise HM Courts and Tribunals Service to debit from the payment card the appropriate fee for your appeal.
