Important notice

The court has the power to send you to prison and to fine you if it finds that any of the allegations made against you are true and amount to a contempt of court.

You must attend court on the date shown on this form. It is in your own interest to do so. You should bring with you any witnesses and documents which you think will help you put your side of the case.

If you consider the allegations are not true you must tell the court why. If it is established that they are true, you must tell the court of any good reason why they do not amount to a contempt of court, or, if they do, why you should not be punished.

If you have any questions or need further information about the hearing please check the website, www.justice.gov.uk or www.direct.gov.uk or contact Court Enquiry Service on 0300 456 4600. Court of Protection staff cannot give legal advice. If you need legal advice please contact a solicitor.

If you need any special assistance or facilities to attend the hearing please contact Court Enquiry Service on the number above immediately so that arrangements can be made (if you have not done so already).
